As part of the agreement in allowing me to participate in this Child Safety Training, I agree that the American Taekwondo Association® (including its officers, employees, agents, tournament organizers, and any other student), will not be responsible for my safety nor do any of these parties assume any responsibility as a guardian or fiduciary. This specifically means that no one listed in this paragraph or associated with American Taekwondo Association® will be held liable for any injury, death or other damages caused to me or to my family, descendants, heirs or anyone assuming any rights on my behalf, and I specifically waive any claim I may have against such persons or individuals.

As further consideration and as a basis for allowing me to participate in this Child Safety Training, I agree to assume any and all risk of harm, and I specifically agree to release the American Taekwondo Association® (including anyone connected with this event) as it relates to any damage, harm or injury that I might suffer, even if the event causing the damage, harm or injury was foreseeable or if such damage, harm or injury was created or caused by the negligent act of the parties I am releasing (this release will not apply to any intentional act). This agreement to hold harmless shall apply to any damage by me or my family, including my estate, heirs or any personal representatives in the event of my death for any damage, injury or harm that should occur by my participation in training related to participation in the American Taekwondo Association®.
